

NO HIGHER CALLING VOL 8 #2

A NEWSLETTER OF THE KENTUCKY TENNESSEE LITERATURE EVANGELISTS

"There is no higher work than evangelistic canvassing, for it involves the performance of the highest moral duties. Those who engage in this work need always to be under the control of the Spirit of God." - CM 12

In His vast plan God has embraced all humanity. He calls for men and women to fill their appointment as agents chosen to carry out His purposes. – {ST April 22, 1903 Par. 3} Christ enlists in His service all who will consent to stand under His authority, all who will wear His yoke and accept the conditions which unite the human with the divine. Those who do this are molded by the influence that, through the grace of Christ, unites heart to heart, mind to mind, in one complete whole. – {ST April 22, 1903 Par. 4} We were brought into existence because we were needed. How sad the thought that if we stand on the wrong side, in the ranks of the enemy, we are lost to the design of our creation. We are disappointing our Redeemer; the powers He designed for His service are used to oppose His grace and matchless love. – {ST April 22, 1903 Par. 5} God gave His only-begotten Son that man might be restored to oneness with Him. And however indifferent the human agent may think it his privilege to be, he will be judged according to the provisions of grace that cost Heaven so much. Man may ignore his responsibility; he may choose to be inspired and controlled by Satan, to withdraw from all righteous principles. Nevertheless, he will be judged as one who might have used all his capabilities in the service of God, but who refused to do this. His failure to do the good he might have done, had he been a partaker of the divine nature, will be recorded against him as a sign that he despised and neglected the great mercy and loving-kindness of God, refusing to recognize the Creator's claim to his service. – {ST April 22, 1903 Par. 6} Those who love God will not live as if they were under little or no obligation to Him. They will not live to please themselves. They will work as Christ worked. All that they have and are will be placed on the altar of service. Earnestly and untiringly they will labor to save the souls for whom Christ died. He, the Redeemer of the world, can and will save the souls of all who come to Him. And to us He has given

"The church must give her attention to the canvassing work. This is one way in which she is to shine in the world. Then she will go forth, fair as the moon, clear as the sun and terrible as an army with banners." RH Jan. 1, 1901

The Children's Century Classics app fix/upgrade should be done within the next two weeks. They are wrapping up connecting in the quizzes and have prioritized the completion of this project.

Spanish Children's Century Classics vol 7 audio was just received for editing and we hope to have that uploaded to the CCC site in the next couple of weeks.

Great leaders don't set out to be a leader...
they set out to make a difference.
It's never about the role
– always about the goal.

"The three most important things to have are Faith, Love and Hope.

But the greatest of them is

Love

Testimony Stories

Don't forget to send in your written testimonials of how God is moving in your Literature Ministry. Your submitted canvassing experiences will be featured in this newsletter and, for the time being, for each testimonial used you will receive a $50.00 check, courtesy of a generous lay donor who is a strong supporter of the Publishing Ministry.
